The semester grade is the only grade reported for a student's transcript. This grade is an average of the student's performance over the entire eighteen weeks of a class. The grade will be represented by both percentage and letter grade, and will be placed on a permanent record provided by the administration. A semester exam will be given, and shall count 10 percent of the total eighteen-week grade. A 9-week grade will be reported to students as well as midterm grades.
